Making a Difference in the Lives of Young Mothers.....

Through our partnership with True Care, a crisis pregnancy center, we have impacted many young mothers-to-be through our Parent Life Outreach.

Along with being able to give clothing, formula, and warm blankets, we also share the Good News of Jesus' love for them which helps them become life long followers of Christ.

Thank you to our faithful partners. Your giving gives us the ability to help young mothers and their babies during the most challenging times of their young family's lives.

Victor Marx Made Impact in Casper

Victor Marx, our 2018 Annual Banquet Speaker, impacted the youth in our community at Roosevelt High School and the Natrona County Juvenile Detention Center. His Message was full of honesty and compassion. He related to the many struggles youth face like bullying, abuse and even shared on the importance of valuing oneself by living a life of abstinence until marriage.

At the banquet, Victor shared about his mission to rescue children from ISIS in Northern Iraq. Not only is Victor involved in this dangerous outreach but also his wife. They threatened to kill him and his family but the love of Christ compels him. They are willing to lay down their lives for the Gospel.

Victor even ministered to the staff members at the hotel he stayed at. It was shared with us that he had brought some to tears as they were moved by his message.

Victor also gave away DVDs, booklets and his autobiography books at Roosevelt High school, juve jail and the banquet. I want to thank everyone who supported our annual fundraiser this year. It truly was a success because many lives were impacted.

Paying It Forward

Two young men who recently graduated from high school, wanted to thank us for serving lunch to them for the last 3 years free of charge. They came and cooked a meal, served it to the high school students and agreed to come back in the near future to help us again. One of the young men stated, "I love you guys—you are like family to me." Those words mean a lot to us because it reveals that we are reaching them with the love of Christ.

Throughout the years that we have known them, we have prayed for them and encouraged them to walk with the Lord. Their willingness to "give back" to the youth in our community, shows that God is working in their lives as they think of others and take action. In Christ, Sharon Lockwood, Executive Director

We will Reap if We Faint Not.....

I have a great praise report I want to share with you. A few weeks ago, I was in Walmart doing some shopping when a young man approached me whom I recognized as one of the youths that used to come to our free lunch two years ago. He had moved to Douglas but was in Casper visiting some friends. The first thing he ask me was how are things going at the Link and then with a lot of excitement told me that he had given his life to Christ and was now going to a church in Douglas. We here at Casper Youth for Christ interact with a lot of youth through the year and plant much Gospel seed into them. I am so thrilled that someone came along and harvested the seed such that this young man became born again and now is attending church. God tells us not to be weary in well doing, because we will reap if we faint not.
